Credit Union-Owned Credit Union 24 Network Breaks Record, Announces 50 New Shareholders

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – November 9, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today 50 new credit unions have become shareholders of the credit union-owned CUSO, breaking all previous records of new shareholders joining the network in a single stock offering. The stock offering was available to credit unions during Q3 2009.

Credit Union 24 is now owned by 286 total shareholding credit unions with more than 8.7 million members and more than $68.8 billion in assets collectively. The 286 credit unions represent every region of the country across 22 states. Credit Union 24 currently has more than 500 participating credit unions in its network, with more than 11 million members and $91 billion in assets collectively.

"This unprecedented record of 50 new credit unions becoming shareholders reflects the dedication our Board of Directors and entire staff have to the success of Credit Union 24 and to putting our participants' members first," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "We've had an extremely successful year as we continue to work along side our credit unions during these difficult times to help them maximize the benefits of their ATM/POS programs, and have many exciting developments planned for the near future. These 50 new shareholders share our confidence and optimism of continued success for all participating credit unions."

The 50 new shareholders represent more than $6 billion in assets with more than 700,000 members and include:
