Associated School Employees Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – August 12, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country’s largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that Associated School Employees Credit Union has joined its network.

“For 50 years our credit union has offered services to our members that focus on customer satisfaction, value and convenience that separate us from other financial institutions,” said Michael Kurish, CEO of Associated School Employees Credit Union. “The Credit Union 24 network helps supplement the services and value proposition our credit union offers our members. It is member-owned, like our credit union, and embodies all three of our core values with the thousands of fee-free ATM and POS locations nationwide.”

Associated School Employees Credit Union has been providing financial services to educators and school staff for half a century since its founding in 1959. The credit union, with nearly $70 million in assets, experienced an expansion in 2007 and now serves more than 7,000 members at five locations throughout Mahoning, Trumbull and Columbiana counties in Ohio. With services ranging from online banking to children’s savings clubs, Associated School Employees Credit Union is dedicated to equipping members with the financial tools necessary to maintain personal financial stability.

“Associated School Employees Credit Union has been delivering superior customer satisfaction to its members for several decades, and its expansion two years ago illustrates the vitality of the institution,” said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. “Our network’s expansion with Associated School Employees Credit Union is a great indication that the network meets the high member-service standards that it has been upholding for years.”
