Blackhawk Community Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – November 12, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country’s largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that Blackhawk Community Credit Union has joined its network.

“Blackhawk Community Credit Union is proud of the relationships we have built with our members through various financial services that focus on our members’ financial well-being today and in the future, such as our wealth management services, investment services and insurance products,” said Bob Carmichael, CEO of Blackhawk Community Credit Union. “Credit Union 24 provides a necessary element to the overall financial prosperity package we provide our members, as fee-free, convenient ATM and POS access is an essential asset to providing our members with unrivaled member service and keeping more money in our members pockets.”

Chartered in 1965, Blackhawk Community Credit Union has grown to more than 30,000 members with more than $320 million in assets. In addition to convenient financial services such as online banking, online bill-pay and free checking, Blackhawk Community Credit Union offers wealth management services that include products and planning. Investment services, including mutual funds, securities trading and brokerage accounts, provide members with comprehensive investment options that few credit unions provide. Furthermore, Blackhawk Community Credit Union offers a variety of insurance options to provide members with financial peace of mind.

“Blackhawk Community Credit Union rivals major national financial institutions with services such as wealth management, investment services and estate planning, making it a one-stop-shop for all of its members’ financial needs,” said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. “Our participant-owned network compliments its premium financial service position with unprecedented fee-free access, enhancing its position as a completely comprehensive financial institution. Blackhawk Community Credit Union’s growth over the past 40 years can be attributed to the credit union’s focus on the financial stability and security of its members throughout all stages of their lives.”
