Credit Union 24 Board of Directors Selects Guerry as Chairman for Third Consecutive Year

Guerry continues to lead nation's largest credit union-owned ATM and POS network through changing economic climate

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – July 26, 2010 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced that its Board of Directors has unanimously selected Mansel Guerry for a third consecutive year as Chairman.

"Mansel Guerry began his tenure on the Credit Union 24 Board in 1998 and served until 2005, and was then re-elected for a second term in 2006. Our Board of Directors' unanimous decision to re-select him as Chairman illustrates their confidence in the direction the network has taken, particularly during the challenging economic climate our nation has experienced during the past 24 months," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24.

Having worked in the credit union industry for more than 20 years, Guerry is president of Ridgeland, Miss.-based Mississippi Employees Federal Credit Union, which has grown from one to three branch locations under his direction. Prior to MEFCU, Guerry was with the Mississippi Credit Union Association.

"I am honored by this opportunity to once again serve as Chairman of the Credit Union 24 network," said Guerry. "My dedication to the Credit Union 24 network is unwavering, and I am surrounded by a superior team of Board Members as well as a very proficient and dedicated staff. I am confident in our network's ability to continue to grow and prosper despite any adversity of the challenging economy or otherwise, as our very foundation continues to permeate through the organization: giving each and every credit union and credit union member the voice they deserve in the financial services industry."

Bradley Blake, President and CEO of Florida State Federal Credit Union and former Secretary/Treasurer of the Board of Directors, was also selected as Vice Chairman, and newly elected Board Member Becky Hulett, CFO of Florida Telco Credit Union, was selected as Secretary/Treasurer.
