CUSA Federal Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – June 29, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country’s largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that CUSA Federal Credit Union, one of the oldest credit unions in the nation, has joined its network as the 21st credit union in the state of Louisiana.

“Joining the Credit Union 24 network allows CUSA Federal Credit Union to grow and strengthen our member services in today’s challenging economy and retain our freedom in the POS realm with a participant-owned network,” said Jeana Rodivich, CEO of CUSA Federal Credit Union. “We’ve been delivering value to our members for more than 50 years, and this partnership greatly enhances that value as we move into the next 50 years.”

CUSA Federal Credit Union, with locations in Covington and Lafayette, La., has 2,400 members and is a longstanding member of the Louisiana Credit Union League after launching on October 12, 1955. The credit union was formally known as Gulf Employees-Harvey Federal Credit Union.

“Credit Union 24’s solutions have been customized to meet the unique financial service requirements of CUSA’s membership,” said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. “CUSA Federal Credit Union has seen many fluctuations in the nation’s economy over the years and has remained strong due to unparalleled service, solid financial products and delivering superior value to its members. We’re honored to help supplement those efforts and further strengthen the financial power that CUSA Federal Credit Union brings to its members.”
