Delta County Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network as First Participant in Michigan

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – June 25, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country’s largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that Delta County Credit Union has joined its network as the first participating credit union in the State of Michigan.

“We have a long history of providing excellent service to our membership, and our partnership with Credit Union 24 compliments our position in the Michigan market,” said Brenda Lippens, CEO of Delta County Credit Union. “The Credit Union 24 network has proven to save members millions on ATM surcharge fees and we’re excited to be the first credit union in Michigan to provide the financial reach and power of this scale to our members.”

Headquartered in Escanaba, Mich., Delta County Credit Union has 10,300 members with more than $72 million in assets. Delta County Credit Union was founded as Delta Catholic Credit Union in 1960, and has since exclusively served those who live, worship, attend school, own real estate or are employees of businesses located in Delta County.

“Delta County Credit Union is a proud addition to our participant-owned network as the first credit union in the State of Michigan,” said Jim Park, President and CEO of Credit Union 24. “We are able to provide flexibility and customization for all of Delta County Credit Union’s needs, and we look forward to delivering increased value for its members while supplementing the credit union’s continued growth pattern.”
