One of Nation's Founding Credit Unions Joins Credit Union 24 Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – June 25, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that Eaton Family Credit Union, one of the nation's founding credit unions in the movement, has joined its network.

"Our credit union has evolved greatly since the infancy of the credit union movement in the 1930's, and Credit Union 24 mirrors our philosophy of flexibility and customization of financial products and services to meet the timely needs of our members," said Fred Seigel, VP of Eaton Family Credit Union. "We evolve with the times and provide our members with the services they need, when they need them. Our partnership with Credit Union 24 is the latest step in that evolution."

Established in 1937 and headquartered in Euclid, Ohio, Eaton Family Credit Union has more than 11,100 members and more than $36 million in assets, with four branches located throughout the greater Cleveland area.

"Eaton Family Credit Union is an excellent example of how a credit union can grow and better serve its members through decades of fluctuations in our economy," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "In its more than 70 years of operation, Eaton Family Credit Union has continued to provide value to its members and community, and has continued its dedication to local philanthropy and encouragement of employee involvement in more than 30 community organizations. We're honored to have Eaton Family Credit Union's prestige and unparalleled reputation join our network."
