Credit Union 24 Welcomes Enfield Community FCU to Fee-Free ATM and POS Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – August 31, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that Enfield Community Federal Credit Union has joined its network.

"Our credit union has prided itself on serving its members and community for almost 75 years, as we have evolved with the needs of our members and implemented new products and services when appropriate," said Kathleen Gleason, CEO of Enfield Community FCU. "The Credit Union 24 network provides our members with a fee-free ATM and POS network that aligns perfectly with the needs of our increasingly mobile members. We want our members to have access to their funds no matter where they are in the nation, which is why we have strived to develop more advanced online banking options and have joined this nationwide network."

Founded in 1936 as the Bigelow-Sanford Employees Credit Union in Enfield, Conn., Enfield Community FCU serves more than 3,500 members that reside or work in the Enfield community. Enfield Community FCU has more than $22 million in assets and offers services ranging from 24-hour home access and online bill pay to children's-specific savings accounts.

Enfield Community FCU is heavily involved in the community through sponsorship and/or volunteerism at charitable organizations such as the Arthur C. Luf Children's Burn Camp, Enfield Food Shelf and Costco Children's Miracle Network. The credit union also provides scholarship opportunities to graduating high school seniors that plan on attending two- or four-year universities.

"Enfield Community FCU applies the credit union philosophy of 'people helping people' to its members and the entire Enfield community," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "Joining the Credit Union 24 network will compliment and hopefully help grow Enfield Community FCU's membership and help increase the impact and value the credit union has on its members and the overall community."
