KBR Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – July 13, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country’s largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that KBR Credit Union has joined its network.

“All members have a voice that is heard in regards to decisions on financial products and services,” said Denise Lind, President and CEO of KBR Credit Union. “Our members expressed their need for national surcharge-free financial access, and the Credit Union 24 network provides the access, customization and participant-ownership that is important in serving our members’ needs.”

Established in 1949 and headquartered in Tacoma, Washington, KBR Credit Union exclusively serves the employees of Simpson Tacoma Kraft Company and Caraustar Mill Group, both paper mills in the city of Tacoma, as well as Commencement Bay Mill Company, a lumber mill based in Tacoma. With the city of Tacoma having a history as a lumber and paper mill city, KBR Credit Union has served blue-collar workers in the Tacoma community with premium financial products and services for 60 years.

“KBR Credit Union is a prime example of the credit union movement of people helping people,” said Jim Park, President and CEO of Credit Union 24. “With a rich history in serving the hardworking employees of several Tacoma businesses that are vitally important to the local economy, KBR Credit Union is a proud addition to our network and we look forward to supporting the specific financial needs of its membership.”
