Lynrocten Federal Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – July 09, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country’s largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that Lynrocten Federal Credit Union, one of the oldest credit unions in the nation, has joined its network.

“Our partnership with Credit Union 24 was initiated through the Virginia Credit Union League,” said Sue Newcomb, President and CEO of Lynrocten FCU. “We are proud to join many other Virginia credit unions that are partners with Credit Union 24. The continual benefits they are reaping helped solidify the decision we already felt would be best for our membership.”

Chartered in 1936 and headquartered in Lynchburg, Virginia, Lynrocten Credit Union offers scholarships to members of the Lynchburg community along with other premium financial products and services.

“We share the same mission of constantly working to better credit union members’ financial health and well-being, and by embracing the member-owned structure, all credit union members can reap the benefits of having a voice in the future of their financial services,” said Jim Park, President and CEO of Credit Union 24. “Providing national surcharge-free financial access is an important element that Lynrocten FCU members asked for, and we’re pleased to provide that access – on Lynrocten FCU’s members’ terms.”
