Credit Union 24's Board Chairman, Industry Veteran Mansel Guerry, to Join Credit Union 24 Executive Team

--Pivotal Member of Credit Union-Owned Network's Board of Directors Joins Staff, Relocates to Tallahassee, Fla.--

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – November 2, 2011 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, is proud to announce that Mansel Guerry, President of BrightView Credit Union in Jackson, Miss., will be joining the staff of Credit Union 24 on January 1, 2012 as Executive Vice President of Administration.

"Mansel's vast knowledge of Credit Union 24 and his hands-on experience as a credit union executive will be an invaluable asset to the Credit Union 24 team as we forge ahead in developing and introducing new products and services, especially during these critical times," said Jim Park, President and CEO of Credit Union 24. Initially, Mansel will be assisting the executive staff in several key projects, not the least of which is the completion of the conversion of Credit Union 24's switch.

Mansel has been affiliated with Credit Union 24 in numerous capacities during the past 16 years. Beginning in 1995, Mansel served as one of Credit Union 24's first marketing agents when he was at the Mississippi Credit Union Association. He was also one of the founding board members in 1998 when Credit Union 24 was established as a cooperative to provide direct control to credit unions. Mansel went on to serve as Credit Union 24's Board Treasurer between 2000-2003, as Vice Chairman between 2003-2005 and as Chairman from 2008-2011. He has also participated on several important Board committees throughout the years. Outside of his Credit Union 24 experience, Mansel has direct experience in strategic planning, team building, product implementation and financial analysis.

With Mansel's 22 years of credit union experience, Credit Union 24 has nearly a century and a half of credit union industry background among its senior executives.
