Mint Valley FCU Joins Credit Union 24's Fee-Free Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – August 31, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today Mint Valley Federal Credit Union has joined its network.

"The Credit Union 24 network provides our members a degree of coverage that cannot be found through any other credit union-owned network in the country," said Richard Hopkins, CEO of Mint Valley FCU. "As the largest fee-free ATM and POS network in the nation, the network coverage greatly benefits our members and properly positions us to attract new members as well."

Mint Valley FCU has been serving the Longview and Kelso communities in Washington for more than 70 years. The credit union has more than $16 million in assets and serves 2,000 members with services ranging from online banking to free financial counseling. Mint Valley FCU provides lifetime membership, and delivers value to its members through the benefits of money market accounts, IRAs, automated touch-tone teller, COSTCO membership, accidental death life insurance, and wire transfer and notary services. The credit union also offers free club membership to Sea World, Busch Gardens and Six Flags Theme Parks around the nation.

"Mint Valley FCU has continued to expand within its community throughout the past 70 years, and is consistently providing a wide range of services to benefit members that are becoming increasingly mobile," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "The credit union now offers the nation's largest fee-free network, enhancing members' ability to connect to their accounts online and through fee-free ATM and POS locations. Complimenting the extremely unique benefit of nationwide theme park club membership, members can now access their finances fee-free wherever they are located, whether its for business or pleasure."
