More Credit Unions Flocking to CU24 - the Nation's Largest Credit Union-Owned ATM and POS Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. –July 29, 2014– CU24, a national provider of services to credit unions, announced that a number of new participants have joined the network over the last month, including Everglades Federal Credit Union, based in Clewiston, Florida; General Electric Employees Federal Credit Union, of Milford, Connecticut; NAPUS FCU of Alexandria, Virginia; Pioneer West Virginia Federal Credit Union of Charleston, West Virginia; and Service One Credit Union, in Bowling Green, Kentucky. These credit unions can now provide their members with access to thousands of surcharge-free ATMs nationwide, thousands of deposit-taking ATMs, and the convenience of access to the nation's largest credit union-owned ATM and POS network.

"We constantly strive to deliver personalized services to our members to help them reach their financial goals," said Dan McGowan, CFO of Pioneer West Virginia FCU. Adds Everglades FCU President and CEO Marta Smith, "Thanks to our partnership with CU24, our members will now have greater access to their accounts almost anywhere, anytime, which greatly enhances our credit union's service offerings and capabilities. To us, that is what credit union service is all about—providing exactly what our members need, when and where they need it."

Pioneer West FCU has more than $179 million in assets and serves more than 17,000 members in the communities of Charleston, Hurricane, Oak Hill, Belle, Huntington, and South Charleston. Everglades FCU has more than $30 million in assets and serves more than 3,900 members in the South Florida area. General Electric Employees FCU has more than $180 million in assets and serves more than 24,000 members in Milford and Bridgeport, Connecticut. Service One Credit Union has more than $125 million in assets and serves more than 14,000 members in the Bowling Green, Kentucky area; and NAPUS has more than $280 million in assets and serves more than 25,000 members in the Alexandria, Virginia area.

"We are proud to partner with credit unions that embrace the foundation of the credit union movement to meet the needs of their members and help ensure their financial success," said Mansel Guerry, President and CEO of CU24. "Clearly the word is getting out that CU24 is a trusted, cooperative, transparent, and service-oriented partner where we strive to provide the services that help credit unions compete and improve their members' lives. We welcome our new members, knowing that they now have the best of both worlds - local, personalized financial services that can be tailored to their specific objectives and the needs of their members, as well as access to the nation's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale network."
