Indianapolis, Ind.-based NorthPark Community Credit Union Joins Nation's Largest Credit Union-Owned Fee-Free ATM and POS Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – January 18, 2012 – Credit Union 24 announced today that NorthPark Community Credit Union, based in Indianapolis, Ind., has joined the nation's largest credit union-owned fee-free ATM and point-of-sale network. NorthPark Community Credit Union now offers its members access to thousands of fee-free ATMs and hundreds of thousands of point-of-sale terminals at major merchants nationwide.

"Our partnership with Credit Union 24 enables us to provide more widespread, fee-free ATM access for our members and provides more access points for them to use their debit cards at more merchants nationwide," said Dan Robbins, president of NorthPark Community Credit Union. "This nationwide access is typically a feature of much larger financial institutions, but because of credit union-owned organizations such as Credit Union 24, smaller financial institutions such as ours can better compete and provide financial access that surpasses even the largest bank network in the country."

NorthPark Community Credit Union opened its doors in 1933 by eight founding members who made a $35 initial share investment. Founded under a state charter as Pitman Moore Employees Credit Union, NorthPark Community Credit Union has since grown to more than $57 million in assets and more than 7,000 members today. Membership is available to employees of Dow Chemical and its worldwide affiliates; and residents of Boone, Clinton, Hamilton, Hendricks and Montgomery counties, and most of Marion County. Today, NorthPark Community Credit Union has four full-service branches, with one branch still operating on the Dow Agro Sciences campus, all of which provide services that meet the unique and specific needs of its members, including Christmas and Vacation Club accounts, CDs, IRAs, and reloadable Visa gift cards, as well as traditional checking and savings accounts.

"We are proud to partner with a credit union that embraces the foundation of the credit union movement by providing the specific financial needs of its members/owners and helping ensure their financial success," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "Now members of NorthPark Community Credit Union have the best of both worlds: local financial services that meet their needs as well as nationwide, fee-free access to those services via our credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale network."
