Tomah-based Oakdale Credit Union Joins Nation's Largest fee-free ATM Network

Tallahassee, Fla. – August 4, 2010 – Credit Union 24 announced today that Oakdale Credit Union of Tomah, Wis., has joined the nation's largest fee-free ATM network, providing its members with access to more than 50,000 fee-free ATMs nationwide.

"Oakdale Credit Union strives to enhance the financial well being of our members by offering investment options, insurance plans and property protection," said Colleen Woggon, President of Oakdale Credit Union. "Our partnership with Credit Union 24 will allow our members to utilize their ATM and/or debit cards at thousands of ATM and point-of-sale locations near and far from their homes, saving them money on fees and increasing convenient access to their money at all times."

Established in 1953, Oakdale Credit Union boasts more than 8,600 members and has more than $42 million in assets. In addition to traditional financial services such as loans and checking accounts, Oakdale Credit Union provides services that add convenience to its members' everyday lives such as Christmas Club accounts and ticket discounts to popular family destinations. Oakdale Credit Union also realizes the importance of teaching children how to be financially responsible at a young age, and offers a K.I.D.S. Club and helpful resources such as "Ask Dr. Math" and "Home Work Heaven." Oakdale Credit Union serves a nine county area, including Adams, Columbia, Jackson, Juneau, Monroe, Richland, Sauk, Vernon and Wood counties.

"We are proud to partner with a credit union that stresses the importance of providing financial education to all of its members, including the younger generations, by offering them helpful resources that help them learn how to make financially smart decisions throughout their lives," said Jim Park, President and CEO of Credit Union 24. "Credit Union 24 is honored to supplement the financial services and resources of Oakdale Credit Union by saving its members' money and providing them access to their money at thousands of fee-free ATM and point-of-sale locations nationwide."
