Wisconsin's PCM Employees Credit Union Joins Credit Union 24 Network

Top-Rated Credit Union Adds 50,000 Surcharge-free ATMs to "Superior Value"

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – June 25, 2009 – Credit Union 24, the country's largest credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale (POS) network, announced today that PCM Employees Credit Union has joined its network. PCM Employees Credit Union was ranked "number one" in the nation among credit unions in comparable asset and member size for "delivering superior value to its members" by research and consulting firm Callahan & Associates.

"The Credit Union 24 network greatly enhances the value that we provide our members through over 50,000 surcharge-free ATMs and hundreds of thousands of POS terminals nationwide," said Dan Wollin, CEO of PCMCU. "Joining a credit union-owned network provides us the direct choice and voice for our POS and other services, and helps generate additional savings for our members while increasing income for our credit union, which is ultimately returned to our members."

Headquartered in Green Bay, Wis., PCM Employees Credit Union has 7,500 members with more than $127 million in assets.

"PCM Employees Credit Union's goals of superior value align perfectly with Credit Union 24's, and we are thrilled to have such a prestigious credit union join our network," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "Credit Union 24's new relationship with PCM Employees Credit Union is another example of how a member-owned cooperative customizes solutions to provide direct benefits to credit union members."
