Columbus, Ohio-based Telhio Credit Union Joins Nation's Largest Credit Union-Owned Fee-Free ATM and POS Network

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – February 6, 2012 – Credit Union 24 announced today that Telhio Credit Union, based in Columbus, Ohio, has joined the nation's largest credit union-owned fee-free ATM and point-of-sale network. Telhio Credit Union now provides its members with access to thousands of fee-free ATMs and hundreds of thousands of point-of-sale terminals at major merchants nationwide, giving members unprecedented access to their funds.

Telhio Credit Union has been a strong and stable financial institution in central Ohio since 1934. For more than 75 years, Telhio Credit Union has served those who live, work, worship or attend school in Franklin County and in surrounding communities, as well as a variety of Select Employer Groups (SEGs), including individuals who work in the accounting, automotive, manufacturing, medical, real estate and telecommunications industries. Today, Telhio serves more than 46,000 members and has more than $440 million in assets. Telhio provides products and services that meet the specific needs of its members, including business and student loans, unique retirement plans, and traditional checking and savings accounts.

"We are proud to partner with a credit union that embraces the foundation of the credit union movement by providing the specific financial needs of its members/owners and helping ensure their financial success," said Jim Park, president and CEO of Credit Union 24. "Now members of Telhio Credit Union will have the best of both worlds: local, personalized financial services that meet their needs as well as nationwide, fee-free access to those services via our credit union-owned ATM and point-of-sale network."
